

Town Policy on Town Website Links and Information

The purpose of Wolfeboro's Town website (Wolfeboronh.us) is to provide information about the Town's local government and its services and activities. The Town's website may provide links to other websites that are consistent with these purposes. The Town is not responsible for and does not endorse the information on any website to which it is linked. The Town of Wolfeboro maintains these links at its sole discretion and may add or remove links at any time without notice, written or otherwise, or the consent of the link's sponsor. The Town of Wolfeboro makes no claims concerning the availability and quality of service of Wolfeboronh.us.

The following criteria will be used to decide whether to approve requests to link other websites to the Town's website:

The Town's website will provide links to it for:

1. Governmental and educational institutions serving Wolfeboro residents.
2. Organizations with some working relationship to the Town (e.g. organizations sponsoring Town programs and activities).
3. Generally recognized community service organizations.
4. Organizations providing information about arts, cultural, and recreational activities in the community.
5. Organizations providing information about tourist attractions in and around the Town.

The Town's website will not provide links to websites for:

1. Candidates for local, state, or federal offices.
2. Political organizations, or other organizations advocating policy positions on local, state, or federal issues.
3. Corporate or other for-profit organizations, unless they fit any of the criteria above, with the exception of the third party firm selected by the Town to accept credit card payments for Town taxes and fees.
4. Individual or personal homepages.
